

Gilly Fales

Gilly was an actress, singer, dancer, director and designer.

Her big dream was to be an actress, and she embraced every opportunity to create. She shared her love for theatre with her family, her friends, and the children of the Cody Community.

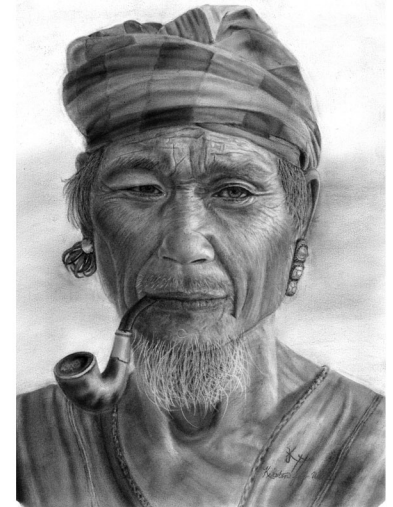

The Gilly Fales Memorial Foundation for the Arts seeks to empower young people who have a passion for the Arts to pursue their dreams. Using the Arts as a platform, the Foundation will support opportunities and programs that help young people develop their skills.

The Foundation was established to honor Gilly's life and is funded by many family members and dear friends who loved Gilly and wish to keep her memory and dream alive. It is their hope that the Foundation will continue to grow and bring the Arts to many young artists.
